LaGrange Fire Department Investigating Deadly Overnight Fire

LaGrange, Ga. October 28, 2020 – The LaGrange Fire Department is investigating a structure fire that occurred at 231 Cherry Valley Drive early Wednesday morning.

Fire scene at 231 Cherry Valley Drive

The initial call came into 911 at 4:08 a.m. with a report of people trapped inside a burning structure. Emergency crews were on the scene by 4:14 a.m.

Once on the scene, firefighters discovered three people inside the residence. Two children ages 12 and 8 years old did not survive the fire. A female adult was taken to the hospital where she continues to recover.

The names of the victims have not been released until the next of kin has been notified.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation.
