LaGrange Fire Department Investigating Suspicious Structure Fire on Bridgette Boulevard

LaGrange, Ga. March 9, 2020 – The LaGrange Fire Department responded to a report of a structure fire at 402 Bridgette Boulevard Saturday morning at 2:19 p.m.

The first arriving unit on scene indicated that the fire was a grass fire or ground cover fire that had extended to 2 homes, causing moderate damage to the vinyl siding of both homes.

When firefighters arrived on the scene, the owner of one of the homes was actively trying to extinguish the grass fire near his home. Firefighters pulled lines and finished extinguishing the fire around both homes. The second home was unoccupied.

Damage estimates to both homes total around $4,000.

The cause of the fire is being listed as suspicious in nature and is under investigation by the LaGrange Police Department.
